Professor J. Pinowski is organizing a symposium on the role of granivorous birds in ecosystems, at the International Ecological Congress, Syracuse, USA, on 13 August 1986. At the request of many ornithologists a similar session will also be held during the International Ornithological Congress in Ottawa in June. The proceedings of both symposia will be combined into a single published volume. African contributions will be co-ordinated by Dr M-Y. Morel (Station d'Ornithologie, B.P. 20, Richard-Toll, Senegambia), to whom prospective participants should address their intentions and any queries.
